

What have you found?

What you discover helps us to find out about the past.

It helps us to protect important sites.

It allows us to show people the richness of our marine historic environment.

If you find something that you think might be of archaeological or historical interest, you must report it to your Site Champion.

THE CROWN ESTATE

Your Site Champion is

Contact Number

Protocol for reporting finds of archaeological interest

The Crown Estate

Prepared by

Wessex Archaeology 