

HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT STATEMENT

Wessex Archaeology staff have duties placed upon them regarding Health, Safety, Environment and Welfare. These duties include but are not limited to:

- Reading and understanding the Health and Safety Policy and Procedures.
- Reading and understanding the Environment Policy; Wessex Archaeology is committed to preventing and minimising the impact of its operations on the environment.
- Correctly using anything supplied to them to protect their health, safety and welfare, including wearing the appropriate personal protective equipment (PPE).
- Complying with Wessex Archaeology's Policy and Procedures, Risk Assessments and any Method Statements or instructions issued to them to enable the Company to fulfil its statutory legal and moral duties.
- Exercising their duty of care to ensure the health, safety and welfare of themselves, their colleagues and others who may be affected by their acts.
- Ensuring that staff have adequate resources to fulfil their responsibilities to the health and safety requirements in the Company Policies and Procedures.
- Ensuring that suitable and sufficient risk assessments are undertaken and complied with.
- Ensuring that all staff are aware of the Company's Health, Safety and Welfare Policy and that they have suitable knowledge and understanding to carry out the duties imposed upon them.
- Ensuring that all staff are trained and competent in the use of equipment that are expected to work with or operate.
- Ensuring that all accident, near misses and work related illness are reported in-line with the Company's Procedures.