

Archaeological Christmas

Responsible to	Volunteer Manager Samuel Fieldhouse Project Owner Pippa Bradley	Subject Matter Expert Pippa Bradley
Why Wessex Archaeology needs this project completed	Wessex Archaeology aims to enhance the public's knowledge of science, history the arts and heritage through archaeology. As part of our community engagement plan we are entering the St Thomas' Christmas Tree Festival. This will support the regeneration of Salisbury and encourage 15000 visitors to the town.
Expected time commitment	1 session so everything is completed by the end of November. We'll run this as a one off afternoon session with mulled wine and mince pies to get our creativity flowing.
Team
Project Description	Using sherds of pottery and other archaeological finds we will create Christmas tree decorations!
Project specific requirements	Creativity. Previous use of glitter and a hot glue gun desirable.
Training and Support	Following a full induction covering safety, health and environment, safeguarding and a building tour, you will be trained in post-excavation finds work and manual handling.
What you will gain from this project	A good chatter, community cohesion, mulled wine and mince pies!
Health and Safety Responsibilities	To be responsible for your own health and safety and that of others with whom you volunteer, by reporting all potential and actual health and safety matters including accidents using the correct procedures.
Safeguarding	Wessex Archaeology is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and vulnerable adults. We expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment and comply with the Wessex Archaeology Safeguarding Policy and Procedures to ensure safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults. You will receive full face to face safeguarding awareness training from the Community and Education Manager.
